I feel it my duty to let all persons, irrespective of color, know the manner in which I was led into the so-called Union League party. In the Spring of 1867, myself and many other colored persons were at a Religious Meeting on Scott's Creek, on the Sabbath day. At the close of Worship, we were notified by the Minister, to meet him and Judge Cannon, on a certain mountain near Wm. Love's premises, for the purpose of joining the Union League, getting "cur mule, 40 acres of land," &c. We all met at the place appointed. Judge Cannon, after a short comment, explaining the object of the meeting, in that lonely and dense thicket, proceeded to administer the oath of the League party to myself and many others, with the promise of "a mule and 40 scres of land." Now my advice to all my colored friends is to come out of the foul party, and let the good people know you are determined to get your mule and 40 acres of land, by the sweat of your brow.
